Make your donation today or anytime through November 28th!

That's right - today marks the official launch of our week-long campaign leading up to "Giving Tuesday"! Please visit the Parelli Foundation's donation page on Razoo to make your campaign donation before November 28th. And, most important of all, please share your support for the foundation on social media and encourage others to consider making a gift as well. With your help we will be able to do even more in 2018 to make the world a better place for horses and humans. Good, Better, Best. Never let it rest!

Remembering Edwin Alderson

The Parelli Foundation mourns the loss of Judge Edwin Alderson, a devoted and respected member of the Parelli Foundation Board since our earliest days. He was a successful business man, at one point owning over 20 radio stations in 3 states, and an exemplary public servant as a municipal judge and later as Special Chief Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court and Chairman of the Arkansas State Health Planning Council. He was instrumental in establishing El Dorado (Arkansas) Festivals and Events and was of the sixth generation of Union Count, Arkansas pioneers.

One of Edwin's greatest passions was riding horses with his cowboy friends in New Mexico. He rode in many trail rides in New Mexico and Arizona, and was known as an outstanding horseman, campfire entertainer and bartender. One of his most memorable rides was a reenactment of the last ride of Billy-the-Kid.

Edwin's love of natural horsemanship led him to serve on the board of the Parelli Foundation since its inception, where his countless contributions will never be forgotten. “Edwin was the quintessential gentleman and judge. Using his wisdom, experience, care and sensitivity, he was the best colleague and confidant,” says Jean Wyer, Board of Directors.

When talent and ambition are not enough...

The Parelli Foundation is proud to reach out to exceptional horsemen and women like Matteo Patti (pictured above, now a 1-Star Licensed Parelli Professional) to help them complete the journey to professional status in a variety of specialties. Students are welcome to apply for scholarships for learning opportunities that meet any of the following criteria:

- A course that qualifies the student to become an instructor, horse development specialist, or equine practitioner, committed to natural horsemanship principles, through a documented licensing or exam process. At the present time, our focus is helping those students who have already shown talent and dedication and are in the final phase of their education. The Foundation provides scholarship assistance to complete the last courses needed to accomplish their career goal.
• Continuing Education for a natural horsemanship/equine professional for special or advanced study

• Advancement as a Professional in one or more of our Program areas which includes: Youth, Therapeutic, or Horse Welfare

• Training for international competition using natural horsemanship principles

Applications are available at https://parellifoundation.org/Scholarships/#scholarships and will be accepted through December 31, 2017 for courses occurring in 2018.
