

Therapeutic Horsemanship Grant Application

Overview -The Parelli Foundation requests proposals from 501c3 therapeutic horsemanship organizations to fund initiatives that provide education and inspiration for improved outcomes, concentrating on issues where education will make a significant difference for the staff, volunteers, and clients it serves. Successful applicants will be those that effectively demonstrate how this proposal builds on what they have already accomplished and outlines clear goals for the future. The evaluation of a proposal will include the following criteria:

- Clarity of the plan for the funding (specifically, what you need the funds for and why).
- Evidence of expertise to accomplish what is proposed. Availability of the resources needed to accomplish the plan.
- Number of horses, staff, volunteers, and clients likely to be impacted.
- Evidence of commitment to natural horsemanship principles.

Please complete the form below and submit it electronically. At the bottom you will be asked to provide proof of liability insurance and 501c3 status. You will need to have this information available in a format to submit at that time. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Special note to our international friends: The Parelli Foundation is a United States company. We provide grants for organizations in the United States. We are sorry that at this time we are unable to provide grants for organizations outside the United States.
